

Substance bought from EU source or imported from non-EU source and filled into bulk storage tank

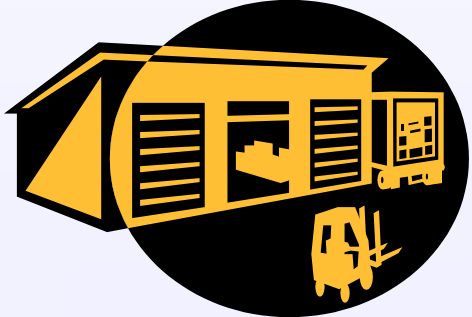

Filled, packaged & labelled according to DSD before 1st December 2010 and stored in warehouse.

Can apply CLP article 61(4).
They do not need relabelled UNTIL December 2012

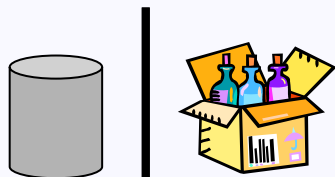

Packages filled after 1st December 2010

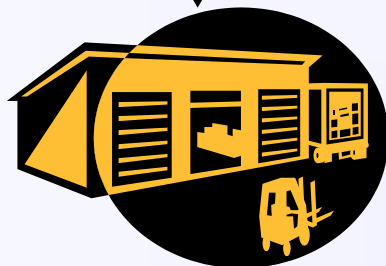

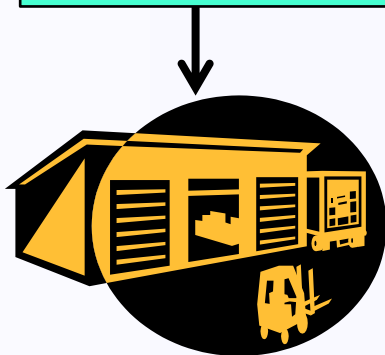

CANNOT apply CLP article 61(4) as tank stock is not packaged.
They MUST be packaged & labelled according to CLP from 1st December 2010

Packaged substance from EU manufacturer or imported from non-EU source

Packaged & labelled according to DSD and stored in warehouse before 1st December 2010.

Delivered after 1st December 2010

New stock MUST be packaged & labelled according to CLP from 1st December 2010.

Can apply CLP Article 61(4).
Packages do not need relabelled UNTIL December 2012

Packaged substance from EU supplier, who is not the primary manufacturer

From 1st December 2010

Both DSD & CLP labelled stock may be received.
DSD labelled stock can be sold until December 2012.
Any remaining stock after that date must be relabelled according to CLP.

The information contained in this paper is intended for guidance only and whilst the information is provided in utmost good faith and has been based on the best information currently available, is to be relied upon at the user's own risk. No liability will be accepted by Fecc for damages of any nature whatsoever resulting from the use of or reliance on the information. This document does not necessarily represent the views of any company participating in Fecc. Users are reminded that the text of existing EU and/or national legislations are the only authentic legal reference and that the information in this paper cannot serve as substitute for legal advice. Each company must decide the strategy to follow.